Description

Lovely pressed molded glass flower vase in smoky brown color dating from the Art Deco period. This cone-shaped vase with a wide flared neck rests on a quadrangular stepped base. The combination of satin glass and transparent glass allows this vase to play with light. Inside the vase there is a type of notched glass ring, removable, allowing the flowers making up a bouquet to be harmoniously distributed and held. Note a single slight chip on one corner of the base of the base (see photo).
