Description

A small bottle in milky white opaline with its ball cap. A crown of anemones and forget-me-nots painted in gold and dark blue adorns the edge of the body. This floral motif is framed by golden threads which also highlight the neck and the cap, the latter crowned with petals. Extremely fine, this decoration was executed by the workshop of Jean-Baptiste Desvignes...

Condition report: in good general condition, with slight wear over time. Chip inside the cap.
