Description

Pair of graceful bronze candlesticks belonging to the Charles X period. The candlesticks are characterized by particular finishes in gilded bronze and burnished bronze. Each candelabra has three arms to accommodate candles and an elegant pilastered column. The base is made up of three decorative feral feet, which rest on a small pedestal. These candlesticks are extremely refined and their design is perfect for adding a touch of elegance to any environment. They are ascribed to French manufacture from the first half of the 19th century (approximately 1820-1830).

Measurements: H x W lights x W base 51 x 21 x 13cm.
