Description

Jarry (20th century): "Bord de Côte aux Pins", ink and gouache on chamois paper 45 Circa 1920. I don't think it's a work by the brilliant creator Father UBU, the period and style don't match! It is nevertheless undoubted that the artist has talent, both the quality of the composition and the accuracy of the touch using white gouache to emphasize the perspective of this coast from which we can see at the end of a promontory a customs officer's cabin.
