PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Nicoya Vase, Costa Rica, 800-1200 Ad Pre-columbian Art, Pre-columbian Art

140 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Terracotta

Diameter : 11 cm

Height : 6,2 cm

Description

Vase ending in a straight neck with a slightly constricted base. It is decorated with a decoration of linear and undulating patterns probably evoking an aquatic concept. Orange-beige terracotta vase with brown decorations. Small chips on the collar, slight surface wear in places. Absence of restorations, good general state of conservation. Nicoya, Costa Rica, 800 to 1200 AD. AD Dimensions: 6.2 x 11 cm Provenance: former Nitch collection, Switzerland. Built in the 1960s and 70s Sold with certificate from expert Serge Reynes Guaranteed original and period. * Shipping costs on quote (11.50 euros for France)

Dealer

GALERIE OCARINA

Art précolombien, Archéologie, Arts premiers

Mobile : 0630229738

15 grand rue

Issigeac 24560