Description

Decorative porcelain plate with gilding all around. Painted by the artist Savouyaud (signed lower left). It represents a man sitting on a low wall courting a woman. The scene is set in a garden at the end of the 19th century. Good condition, the colors are very bright. There are some gaps in gilding around the edges. On the back of the dish, we find a rope passed through four small holes to hang the decoration on the wall. French work from the beginning of the 20th century.
