Description

Lovely painting representing a music hall dancer, an emblematic subject of our artist who represented with such brilliance and accuracy the dancers whether at the Opera or on the music hall stages of which he has made a name for himself. speciality. With her arms holding her crossed legs in a graceful movement, our young dancer offers us a very pretty pose; a flower in her hair to match her costume and her accessories highlighted in blue. A whole rich variation of colors in mauve, lilac, gray-pink tones adds to the grace that emanates from the subject. Signed lower right "Charley Garry". The painting is wonderfully highlighted by its stepped frame in the same color tones, so well suited to the work that it becomes an integral part of it. A breathtaking decorative effect! Dimensions: 22
