Description

Scriban chest of drawers, in solid yellow and red mahogany, coming from Saint-Martin and Cuba respectively. This La Rochelle port piece of furniture opens with two identical drawers. They each have drop oval beaded handles with mascarons and a embossed brass entry with original lock with fitted posterior key. This piece of furniture also offers two upper, smaller drawers, also equipped with entrances, locks with keys and separated by a false drawer. The rounded uprights, with fixed grooves, end in small humped doe feet. The lower crosspiece is thin and cut. The surface-mounted flap, with a single-panel, miter-cut frame, is fitted with a bronze entry and a two-comb lock with fitted bronze key. This flap opens on brass hinges and remains open, slightly raised on the supporting
