

Old Pewter Radiant Rose Decor Tudor XVIII

190 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Tin

Width : 41

Description

Rare in its composition, an 18th century pewter: in the shape of a shaving dish but undoubtedly a fountain basin reworked later. Different decorations: foliate scrolls, radiant putti. Two hallmarks on the reverse: one depicting a Tudor rose with a closed crown with initials reminiscent of Nicolas Decamp, Master in Liège; the other depicting a troubadour (reported) Object of curiosity Width 41 cm Some scratches on the reverse, slight wear on the top

Dealer

ADEQUANTIK

Antics

Mobile : 0682817031

6 rue Gay Lussac

Angers 49100