

Pair Of Vintage Wall Lights 1970

Description

Pair of wall lights from the 1970s, each made up of 6 glass elements that can be interpreted as ginkgo leaves or shells. The structure of the wall lights is in gold metal and each has 2 sockets for E14 bulbs. Very beautiful vintage pieces which diffuse a very pretty play of light. In superb condition for their ages, these wall lights have small, barely visible signs of wear on the metal structure. Dimensions: height 26 cm, width 27 cm. Bulbs not included. Electricity checked. A complete set of 6 replacement glasses will be provided. Careful shipping. Contact me to find out the delivery rate according to your country.
