Daphne Casorati Maugham (London, 1897 - Turin, 1992) was an English painter, wife of Felice Casorati. She trained initially in London, then in Paris, again in London and finally in Turin, where she was a pupil of Felice Casorati, who later became her husband. She moved permanently to Italy and exhibited at several editions of the Venetian Biennale and the Quadriennale in Rome, as well as at the Universal
