Description

Charming little gilded piece of furniture topped with slightly projecting Duquesa Rosa marble, embedded in a scalloped molding. In the belt, this table has four knockout sides sculpted with stylized flowers and petals. This assembly rests on four fixed fluted columns with rings at the top and bottom. In the lower part of this table, an open storage space, which can accommodate both plants and bottles, has canework on all sides. A floral arrangement adorns the front one. Inside we find a removable tray. Refined, this side table will seduce you with its bright colors and its ingenuity making it a rare piece of furniture. ********
