Description

Thailand, 19th century or most certainly earlier, very pretty Ayutthaya style bronze Buddha head mounted on a wooden base. The face with half-closed eyes is marked by great serenity and displays a slight smile. Good quality of cast iron. Height of the head alone: 6.7 cm (10.4 cm with its base). The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a brand known to everyone.

Good state of conservation except for wear and small losses; nothing unusual in relation to its age and no impact on the aesthetics of this beautiful piece.
