

Ridge Cap In Glazed Terracotta, Late 19th Century, Bavent Pottery

800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Terracotta

Length : 33 cm

Width : 25 cm

Height : 55 cm

Description

Superb ridge cap in glazed terracotta in the shape of an artichoke, unusual in Normandy. The pottery of Mesnil de Bavent (Calvados) is a real institution promoting the ridge cap which adorns the most beautiful villas. A Norman heritage of artistic craftsmanship, the company has existed since 1842. A symbol of authenticity and tradition, this ridge cap embodies the excellence of the know-how of artistic craftsmen. Every detail reveals the attention paid to quality and aesthetics, making this object an exceptional piece.

Dealer

Galerie Bleu Magenta

Antiquités

Mobile : +33683626337

Rueil-Malmaison 92500