Description

This Art Deco style center console features a long rectangular rosewood top made up of twelve small panels, in horizontal and vertical veneer, arranged alternately. The belt offers a drawer with a knockout front, fitted with a chrome ball button, surrounded by moldings. The whole rests on an arched base, also veneered with rosewood, joined by three chrome tubes acting as spacers. This all-sided console, interesting for its dimensions, will naturally find its place in a contemporary and refined interior.

Period: 1930

Excellent condition. Varnished finish.
