Description

Exquisite Regency-Louis XV style tomb chest of drawers, a true embodiment of the artistic movement and elegance of the 18th century, made in the 19th century. Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, this natural wood, cherry chest of drawers offers a remarkable interpretation of the graceful aesthetics of the Regency and Louis XV.

Its four legs delicately sculpted in the shape of shells, with windings and beautiful scrolls, add a touch of sophistication and highlight the artisanal know-how of the period. Each curve of this chest of drawers is a tribute to the refined ornamentation characteristic of the Regency style and the beginning of the Louis XV era.

The natural wood, delicate patina and harmonious symmetry of the chest of drawers testify to its
