Description

Pretty Art Deco triptych mirror in mahogany, decorated with bronze decorations, to place on a table or dressing table. The rectangular side windows as well as the curved central window in its upper part are beveled. Note some slight pitting and a scratch on the surface of the mirrors, but nothing that detracts from the charm of this mirror, just a testimony of the time that has passed. Both sides can be folded down completely and the rear is covered with mahogany panels. The back of the central part is protected by a fine parquet floor. This triptych mirror could very well be imagined in a bathroom above a sink by installing a wall mounting device at the back. Dimensions in closed position: 68 cm in height and 50 cm in width (56 cm in width at the level of the policeman's hat cornice).
