Description

Beautiful object, 18th century, coming from High family, Regency or Louis XV period.

It is a pocket wax seal, steel cage forged of openwork heart, base is a round seal engraved with of "mavelot", initials difficult to decipher...

This frameing has a stirrup, on which a superb faceted intaglio 3 engraved faces pivots; one decorated with a coat of arms of chivalry, perhaps from Spain, the second: a magnificent cloud pyramid climbed by a serpent and the motto in Spanish: niente e imposible al la vertu, Nothing is impossible for Virtue , the third, a beautiful mavelot under Ducal crown of France.

Research on this stamp may be interesting.

Nothing is ever perfect: the red jasper stamp has cracks, see my magnifying photos, with arrows.

Beautiful seal from 1st half of the 18th century.
