The study of heredity in the Ducal House of Lorraine-Vaudémont, which is the subject of this work, is of considerable interest. Considered successively under its different aspects, physical, psychological and pathological, it completes the historical work and reveals the evolution of the ducal house, considered as a simple family group. Uncompromising study, printed in 310 copies with 102 out-of-text engravings. Preface by Mr. Henri Mangin, mayor of Nancy. Numerous illustrations in the text. Very nice copy.
