Note: some shocks and dirt on the medals, wear and scratches from time, see photos. * Émile Adolphe Monier (1883-1970) known as Émile Monier is a French sculptor, emblematic of the Art Deco period. He created very beautiful portraits of the different ethnic groups of the former French colonial empire. We know of his bronze medals stamped with superb profiles of Bornou, Peuhl, Senoufo, or Tuareg men and women created in particular for the Colonial Exhibition of 1931. Diameter: 5.8/5.9 cm
