Description

Rare Roanne earthenware plate from the 18th century, from the Sébastien NICOLAS factory, with the profile of Marie-Antoinette. This very interesting piece is also interesting for the history of Lyon. Its provenance makes it one of the rare vestiges of the Hôtel du petit Versailles, destroyed during the great landslide which struck the St Jean district in 1930. The plate has visible scratches in the photos, but overall in good condition without crack or hair. Diameter: 21.5cm
