des artistes français (honorable mention in 1933).

Sultry and illustrator of naughty novels, Ludo Chauviac (1894-1978) tried his adventure in Paris. His ill-fated acolytes Foujita and Dubout introduced him to the Parisian artistic world between the wars.

He sketched the cover of the book Au grand 13 signed Gom Gut, pseudonym of Georges Simenon.

After an intense Parisian life, Ludo returns to his native region of Montpellier to continue his work.
