Description

Large Bronze with brown and golden patina, signed on the terrace Edouard Drouot (1859-1945). This French sculptor is known for his sculptures of mythical scenes which are characterized by a sense of movement and an impressive expressive touch. "Combat de Tigres" is a work inspired by wild nature. Two defensive tigers roar during their fight. Their muscular bodies reveal the beauty of the animal and their offensive posture. This important bronze by Édouard Drouot will delight you with its charisma and its beautiful patina. It is signed on the terrace.
