

17th Century Engraving, Nicolas Bonnart 1637 1718

320 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Width : 200 mm

Height : 310 mm

Description

Marie Louise Élisabeth d'Orléans, was born on August 20, 1695 in Versailles and died at the age of 23 on July 20, 1719 at the Château de la Muette. She obtained the title of Duchess of Berry in 1710 through her marriage to Charles of France, Duke of Berry Eldest daughter and first child of Philippe d'Orleans She was officially nicknamed Mademoiselle and Unofficially nicknamed "Joufflotte" because of her busty forms, or the "Venus of Luxembourg". Etching with gold highlights and colors by Nicolas Bonnart (1637-1718) engraver, publisher and print dealer based on rue Saint-Jacques at the Aigle sign.

Dealer

Comme au Siècle des Lumières
Antiquités

Mobile : 06 14 52 35 57 - 06 14 95 15 22

38 rue Charles Waddington

Vert-en-Drouais 28500