Description

Louis Icart the flower seller. (52 cm, 38 cm) The contrast of aging in the face of mise en abyme. One happy to present her stall while the other is happy to be seen. When one takes the light the other remains in the shadows. In the middle of them, two strong symbols: the French label and of course the Arc de Triomphe in the background. Period lithograph includes: the mill in the paper, numbered, signed and copyright. The gold frame looks great! Possible delivery not included in the price
