

Lacquered Wood Statue Benzai Ten Butsudan Zushi Japan Edo Period

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Height : 29,5 cm

Description

Very beautiful statue in painted and gilded wood representing a divinity of Benzai Ten Buddhism - Extremely refined sculpture on sental wood with very realistic eyes carved in sulphide. Goddess of talent and eloquence, she holds the jewel and sword attributes in her hands.

Work certainly from the Edo era, around the beginning of the 19th century.

Height: 29.5 cm

Good general condition, although with some gaps and wear in places (see photos for more details).

Shipping worldwide with insurance. Contact me for shipping costs.

Dealer

Chimères d'antan

Art Asie

Mobile : 0609372282

38 rue Rieussec

Viroflay 78220