Description

Large Neapolitan gouache from the end of the 19th century representing a lively view of Naples from the ramparts, with its fishermen, its boats and its characteristic bay. We can see the smoking Vesuse in the background. The colors are fresh and the whole thing is very decorative. This gouache, which is in very good condition, has a superb rosewood veneer frame with lighter lines in a large format: 59 x 48 cm. Hand delivery is recommended for this work.
