

Transatlantic Liner 1923 By Eugène Hiéblot (1886-1953) Official Painter Of The Navy

1 800 EUR

Signature : Eugène HIÉBLOT (1886-1953) Peintre Officiel de la Marine et la Compagnie Générale Transatlantique

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

Important Marine painting from the Art Deco period (97 cm of Latouche (ARCHIVES: Antilles line: Le Havre - Bordeaux - Fort de France - Colon) sailing at full steam on a rough tropical blue sea. Beautiful period frame in molded gilded wood highlighted with a laurel twist motif. Have a good summer overall. Dimensions: 97 cm of the navy in the Le Havre directory. He painted in a traditional style, at the request of sailors, numerous portraits of ships frequenting the port of Le Havre, particularly the Compagnie Générale Transatlantique and the Chargeurs Réunis. In 1922 he was appointed official painter of the Navy then painter of the Compagnie Générale Transatlantique.

Dealer

Galerie Tramway

marchand d'art, gestion du patrimoine

Mobile : 06.65.52.05.40

D-751

Amboise 37400