Description

Pair of CGM Compagnie Générale Maritime Lamps in rocking bronze Table or wall lamps signed HARCOURTS late 19th century early 20th century ref BX24CGM001 With frosted crystal tulips decorated with acid-etched scrolls and florals. The tulips are in perfect condition. It is very difficult to find a pair with its homogeneous and strictly original tulips... They present the manufacturer's mark HARCOURTS and the acronym CGM for the Compagnie Générale Maritime, a luxury tourist transport company, liners at the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th century. These lamps are originally electrically mounted, the center has been drilled to allow wall-mounted installation and to make the wires disappear in a partition. Originally these lamps have an anti-roll
