

Biscuit Clock: The Broken Jug Late 18th Century

1 950 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Biscuit

Length : 36 avec socle

Height : 44 avec socle

Depth : 20

Description

Elegant bisque clock, representing a young woman draped in the Antique style sitting on a base at her feet a tree stump and on the other side a love holding a broken jug, "the broken jug" the dial of Gaston Jolly in Paris Work of Louis XVI period from the end of the 18th century of good quality, large model 39 cm by 28 cm without the base The base in carved and gilded wood (handmade) This clock is presented in "good" condition, a very small chip on the biscuit, the movement has to be revised, this explaining the price

Dealer

Galerie Etienne Thuriet

Mobilier, Objets d'art et décoration XVIIIe et XIXe

Tel : 02.37.22.73.90

Mobile : 06.13.61.34.95

41-43, rue des Changes

Chartres 28000