Description

This important beaded mirror is dark with a beveled mercury glass, surrounded by a slightly scalloped blackened wooden molding, highlighted by a first half-round frame, in embossed brass, decorated with flowers and leaves. The side parts, the top and the bottom, identical, are decorated at the corners with embossed brass elements with motifs of acanthus leaves, foliage and scrolls. A second frame in brass and blackened wood borders this mirror. The pediment with motifs of vases, scrolls, flowers, garlands and foliage is applied to a background of ice. This important beaded mirror will easily dress up a section of wall with its dimension ***** Period: Mid-19th century
