Description

This half-moon table in solid and veneered walnut opens at the waist with a drawer. This massive belt, scalloped and sculpted in a frieze style with flower decorations, rests on four fluted legs, turned in a spindle, with leaf motifs. The walnut veneer top, with vertical veneered strip, is bordered with molded pearls. This table unfolds using a sophisticated and judicious system. In fact, the rear legs unfold in a "V" shape and are assembled using an iron hook. Open, this modular piece of furniture is decorated with green felt that serves as a games board or, if necessary, can accommodate four place settings once the surface is covered. Our establishment offers you, through this table, a quality multifunctional solution, namely a console, a games table or a dining table crafted with great skill.  Period: Late
