Painted Canvas Representing A Chameleon. Contemporary Work.

2 650 EUR

Period : 20th century
Condition : Très bon état
Material : Painted wood
Width : 100 cm
Height : 160 cm

Description

Painted canvas or decorative panel representing a chameleon on its branch, on the right, with a foliage and stylized background in shades of blue and pink. We can see a small fan with arabesques or scrolls to the right of the composition.

Reference: LS5969675R

Possibility of forming a pair with a painted canvas representing a chameleon placed to the left of the canvas: you can see it here.

Raw linen canvas hand painted with natural pigments and golden patterns made with copper leaf. Canvas stretched using two wooden sticks, the bottom one of which is removable, allowing it to be rolled up for transport.

Dealer

Jean Luc Ferrand Antiquités
Antique Dealer, Paris Flea Market, Marche Biron.
Tel : 0608784337
Fax : Devis de transport sur demande en fonction de la destination.

85 Rue des Rosiers, Marché Biron, stand 39
Saint-Ouen 93400