

Koi Japanese Carp Painting Kakemono

290 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Silk

Length : 182

Description

Kakemono of a carp leaping out of water painted on silk. This fish occupies a very good place in Japanese legends; it personifies indomitable resolution, perseverance and tenacity, because it courageously faces the strongest currents of water and even jumps from waterfalls, it often becomes a dragon. This fish is omnipresent in parks and waterways in Japan.

Dealer

fudo-myoo

japanese art

Mobile : 0641986179

1 boulevard pasteur

Soissons 02200