Description

Beautiful pair of columns in green Prato marble, made in the 19th century, which recall the Renaissance style. The columns are characterized by elegant grooves in the lower part, while they are twisted in the upper part. Both decorations give a touch of classic sophistication. The base is octagonal in shape and each of the columns is equipped with a circular capital which adds further charm and history to their appearance. These magnificent columns are the result of Tuscan manufacturing and embody the sophisticated taste and aesthetic rigor of the Renaissance era.

Measurements: HxD 110 x 28 cm.
