Description

Discover this magnificent bronze sculpture representing a seated lady, probably of Greek origin, delicately holding a pencil. A work of remarkable finesse, the sculpture sports a silver finish which adds to its charm. What sets this piece apart is not only its dazzling beauty, but also the immense skill required for its creation, due to the intricate folds of the lady's dress and its imposing dimensions. The lady, with her relaxed face, exudes an aura of timeless elegance as she sits gracefully. This sculpture is a testimony to the artist's mastery, signed "EVRARD" and dated 1875, making it a true treasure of its time. Resting on an antique red marble base, the sculpture stands as a testament to the eternal beauty of classical art. With dimensions measuring 75x40x30 cm, it attracts attention in any space,
