Description

Oil on canvas signed lower left Lucien Haffen (1888-1968). "Lucien Haffen spent his entire life in Strasbourg, while traveling a lot. These trips nourished his inspiration for an abundant work which covered the first half of the 20th century. His native region was also a fertile source of always renewed inspiration. He is a painter of motifs, painting in nature. (...) Lucien Haffen is fond of Alsace. So he paints his hometown outdoors, the landscapes of the four seasons, trees in flower, the harvest, the grape harvest, snow landscapes. He executes portraits of personalities, commissions and family subjects (mother and children). He also paints events" (source Wikipedia). Thus we can assume that the bridge presented here is a bridge over the Rhine and perhaps even the Chalampé bridge during the
