Description

FABERT (Abraham) - The remarks of Abraham Fabert, Knight, Sieur de Moulins and Master Alderman of Metz, on the general customs of the Duchy of Lorraine, the bailiwicks of Nancy, Vosges and Germany. Metz, Chez Claude Bouchard, 1657; folio, 539 pp. + table, contemporary full calfskin binding, decorated ribbed spine, upper caps. and inf. damaged scattered skin. Famous work of Lorraine law, which unfortunately lacks the frontispiece, the portrait and the title page. This is a study on the customs of Lorraine. This work is attributed to Abraham Fabert even though he was only its editor.
