Description

Antique print by Cornelis Cort (Horn 1533 - Rome 1578) applied on poplar board and painted in oil.
The artist, of the Flemish school he spent the last 12 years of his life in Italy, period in which he made this engraving.
The subject is the meeting between Jesus and the Samaritan woman at the well, whose symbolic meaning is the innovation brought by Christ who offers the good news even to those who are not considered pure Jews The print, rich in details, was painted in a later period and applied to an embellished wooden board from a gilded gold leaf frame.
The measurements indicated are the maximum
