Description

Group of art deco style wood sculptures from the 1950s representing an elephant with its little one. Interesting uncommon set treated in a very dynamic style typical of the 1930s. Signed on the Bartonili terrace, artist who created this unique piece in 1953. Very decorative set with a beautiful original patina that can be positioned on a console or chest of drawers. Very nice size length 70 cm. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by professional carrier or by secure package.
