Description

Elegant solid Cuban mahogany armchairs resting on haunched front legs and saber rear legs. The continuity of the legs is done by an inverted console supporting the armrests forming a stock. On the sides, we discover sculpted ornamentations. Each seat is made the old-fashioned way with straps, springs and horsehair. It is covered with a striped silk fabric that can be changed at your convenience. Refined, these characterful armchairs with rounded lines will easily find a place in your interior.  Period: Early 19th Century Excellent condition of the structure. Waxed finish.
