Description

Elegant Louis XVI style sideboard, topped with a magnificent Bize breccia marble, from the Hautes-Pyrénées, and featuring a groove. Composed of cedar and mahogany burl, enhanced by inlays of rosewood and lemon tree fillet in various places, it opens on the front with a drawer fitted with a chiseled bronze ring handle and beaded macaron. Below, two doors furnished with vertical bronze entrances, one of which has a key operating a brass lock with a so-called "up and down" closure, in working order, reveal a spacious mahogany interior with a shelf on full length. This piece of furniture rests on mahogany uprights embellished in the upper part with bronze scraps, ending in sheathed feet with shoe of the same alloy. The sides, with curved lines, feature the same precious wood inlays on the
