Description

OFFICER'S COURT Sword

France, late 18th century

Silver and steel

Length: 104; Blade length: 88 cm

The silver spindle, pommel, single-branch hilt and shell are finely decorated with a series of fillets of pearl stripes and friezes of diamond-tipped cabochons, punctuated by medallions of floral bouquets and flowers.

Marked "R5" on the heel of the steel blade with a median groove, which retains traces of engraving including "Maria Benedicte" and "Portugal" in capital letters.
