Description

Swedish Folk art so called 'Allmoge' writers table

An example of extraordinary folk art with all original black and blue paintwork with a wonderful pattern

Handforged hinges on the outside of the lid, attached with early square nails

Multiple drawers beneath the lid to store small objects and a large space for larger items

This piece was made in two parts, a stand and a writers desk placed in it

A beautiful piece that can be placed in any interior because of its clean lines

Dating from the 18th century, this folk art piece is probably ones made in the countryside of Dalarna Sweden
