Description

Small all-sided living room furniture from the Art Deco period, in walnut, with a flap opening. The top is composed of a symmetrical expanded walnut veneer. The door, fitted with a nickel-plated brass ball button and cut-off edges, opens using a compass and reveals a substantial storage space accompanied by a sliding shelf. Surrounding this tall element, large solid walnut legs, rectangular and curved at the bottom, join a base. Ideal as a small piece of extra furniture, practical and harmonious, it will have the advantage of taking on various uses depending on the rooms it will occupy. Additional storage space, end of sofa, small shelf or trendy bedside table, it will find its place in your interior by combining style and functionality. *****
