Description

Art Union Of London - Bronze Electrotpe Medallion 1872 By Gg Adams After William Etty
Bronze electrotpe by the sculptor GEORGE GAMMON ADAMS (1821-1898) representing a representation of the work of WILLIAM ETTY 'Venus and Cupid Descending'. 27 cm in diameter. Model of one of thirteen medals issued by the Art Union of London in a series illustrating the history of British art and encouraging metal engraving. The medals were specially ordered and issued annually to members of the Art-Union. The scene is typical of the work of the painter William Etty (1787-1849), famous in his time. The bronze medal awarded was 57mm; the bust of Etty in profile was engraved on the obverse and this scene of Venus and Cupid on the reverse. Hanging hook soldered on the
