

Throwing Knife, From Chad, Unusual Model

160 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Width : 34 cm

Height : 37 cm

Description

This throwing knife is obviously of African origin. Its shape links it to the weapons of Central Africa.

Although I was unable to find the exact shape despite extensive research, this weapon is very close to certain Massalit throwing knives from Chad.

Both sides are chiseled with geometric patterns. The handle is covered with a rattan braid that has hardened over time.

This item was collected in central Africa in the 1950s

Nice and very decorative object, very different from the models usually encountered

Shipping costs France EUR20, Europe EUR30
