Description

A rare Chinese blue and white porcelain bowl.
China, Qing dynasty, 18th/19th century.

The bowl with slightly everted rim, decorated with a band of underglaze blue and white geometric motifs in archaic bronze style. Furthermore a double circle running underneath the mouth rim and a triple circle on the outer foot rim.

Provenance:

From an old Swedish collection. With original invoice from Hans Öström, Stockholm, 1942, wherein he states that this bowl is made in the Kangxi period and from the J. Loves Collection London (see last photo).
