Description

Extremely decorative and rare metal tray from the 50s Italy.The turquoise-blue base color is decorated with a gilded representation of classicism (stylized) and decorative elements.The fight scene of lion with gazelle is applied with 2 different views, in between are also again graphic elements opposite each other. The decoration is slightly raised and under the gilding red veins can be seen, which give the view a certain depth.Undamaged original condition with scratch marks on the black back of the tray.On the front in the blue area there is slight gray loosening.
