Description

Raymond PELLETIER (1907-1958). Imposing Art Deco medallion representing a pigeon, it is in silvered bronze mounted on a marble base surrounded by two chrome scrolls. It is signed on the R. PELLETIER medallion. Period: mid-20th century. Sold in its own juice, not cleaned, it is in good condition, nice patina, little wear, note a few micro shocks on the marble, barely visible and without depth, nothing serious, (see photos). Raymond PELLETIER: sculptor, engraver and medalist. A former student of the Boule school, he was general engraver of the Lima Mint in Peru from 1951. Raymond Pelletier was a very prolific medalist, most of his medals were published as special editions in an Art Nouveau and Art Deco style. Length: 40 cm. Height: 20.5 cm. Width: 10 cm. Medallion
